ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

30 October 2009

During the quarter the company strived to exploit existing opportunities arising in connection with its Mantuan Downs bentonite deposit and the recently acquired Filtek wastewater solutions business. Despite much enthusiasm and hard work it has become clear to the board that neither of these endeavours is likely to generate significant revenues in the near future. Accordingly, the board is considering sharpening the company's focus so that it is better able to generate desired revenues and anticipated profitability.

As indicated in the Previous Quarterly Report and the Preliminary Final Report, the company intends to seek further equity so as to ensure that it is well placed to capitalise on existing and new opportunities that it is investigating. Shareholders will be kept informed of developments in this regard.
